WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

DANIEL PRICE
Head Coach

Coach Daniel Price: Coach Price comes to us from Jackson State University in Jackson, Mississippi, where he served as the Assistant Women's Basketball Coach. He brings a wealth of experience, leadership, and passion for student-athlete development. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from the University of Pikeville and has spent his career guiding student-athletes both on and off the court.

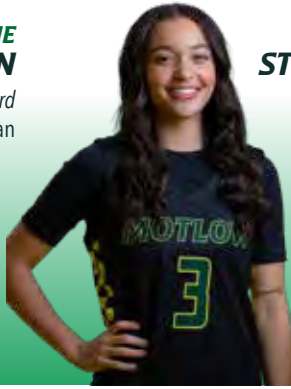

Beyond his impressive coaching credentials, Coach Price is a dedicated father, husband, mentor, and Christ follower. He and his wife, Dr. Kish Cumi Price, are proud parents of 10 children, six boys and four girls, who are all actively involved in sports, especially basketball and volleyball. His commitment to mentoring is reflected in his work with his nonprofit, Overtime Performance Skills Development, through which he has helped over 130 student-athletes earn college scholarships and degrees.

Coach Price's dedication to empowering young athletes and helping them achieve their dreams aligns perfectly with Motlow's mission, and we are thrilled to have him join the Bucks family.
